DURRANT ON THE RACK.

The Alleged Double Murderer Continues His Testimony.

HE CREATES A LAUGH IN COURT

By a Silly Story of Alleged Information Conveyed to Him by a Stranger—The Prisoner Still Retains His Composure Under Trying Circumstances.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 11.—Under the rigid cross examination of District Attorney Bates yesterday Theodore Durrant made a number of answers that are regarded as decidedly incriminating. Inasmuch as they appear to be in direct conflict with well established facts, and then changed his replies when he realized that he was on dangerous ground. He gave an explanation of a few regarding Blanche Lamont's disappearance said to have been received by him that was so palpably a falsehood that everybody in court laughed aloud.

Two days before the body of the young woman was discovered, Durrant said, as he was standing at the corner of Market and Montgomery streets, a stranger approached him and asked if his name was not Durrant. The stranger then asked Durrant if, in view of the fact that his name had been unpleasantly connected with the disappearance of the girl, he would not like to find her. Durrant replied that he would be overjoyed even to obtain a trace of the missing girl. "Watch the ferry then," the stranger said, "she will try to cross the bay. That is my advice."

He did not ask the stranger his name, his residence, or for any additional information. He went to lunch and from there to the ferry, where he remained until 5 o'clock, not having caught a glimpse of the missing girl. While he was waiting, however, he saw three medical students and an old schoolmate. One of these men has already testified that he saw Durrant meet a school girl whose description answered that of Minnie Williams, who was murdered that night, and ride away toward the mission on a Howard street car. Mr. Barnes asked him if he told anybody else of the clue given by the stranger, so they could continue the search. Durrant said he had no opportunity to tell any of Miss Lamont's friends. When questioned closely Durrant admitted that he attended a meeting of the young people's society the same evening, where he saw several of Miss Lamont's intimate friends. Among others was Thomas Vogel, whom Durrant had said a moment before was more interested in the disappearance of the young woman than anybody else except Mrs. Noble, her aunt. Durrant admitted that he had a private conversation with Vogel, but did not think to tell him of the clue he had obtained.

After a short recess a surprise was sprung on Durrant in the hope that it might disconcert him. After asking him if he had ever made a written statement of his whereabouts on the day Blanche Lamont was murdered, and receiving an affirmative reply, District Attorney Barnes asked the following questions:

"Is it not a fact that you sent a written statement of your case to your attorney and wrote on the envelope, 'To be opened if I am convicted and to be returned if I am acquitted'?"

The excitement caused by this question was intense. In the hum of voices Durrant's answer was lost, and the stenographer was asked to read the reply.

"I never sent an envelope to my attorneys bearing such an inscription," said he. Durrant was questioned at length regarding the communication and the significant inscription on the envelope, but he denied that he ever sent such a document.

Durrant was next shown the various garments worn by Blanche Lamont, and asked if he had secreted them in the belfry, where they were found. He identified the pieces of clothing as the ones worn by Miss Lamont on the day of her death, but said he did not hide them in the church.

Durrant's strong nerves were tested by a number of questions relative to the last time he saw Miss Lamont, but he stuck to his former statements on that point.

Sweep by a Tidal Wave.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 11.—Captain Olsen, owner of the schooner Czar, has received a private dispatch from Guaymas confirming the story of a hurricane and tidal wave at La Paz, Lower California. The Czar is at La Paz, and is high and dry on the beach. It is feared that she is a total loss. There is no direct telegraphic communication with the Lower California capitol, so news from the scene of the disaster is necessarily slow. Mexicans here have had dispatches about a severe storm which prevailed all along the coast early this week. The loss of life is reported heavy, but details of the disaster are meager.

The Accused Election Supervisors.

BALTIMORE, Oct. 11.—Governor Brown last night rendered his decision in the cases of Messrs. Blans and Cairnes, supervisors of election, recently accused of misconduct by the Reform League. The governor decides that no case of misconduct has been made out, but adds that the evidence leads to the conclusion that Supervisor Cairnes has been guilty of negligence, and that Supervisor Holland, against whom no charge was made, is too old to serve. He has received the resignation of Mr. Cairnes, but as Mr. Holland refuses to resign the governor will remove him.

Mrs. Langtry's Stolen Jewels.

LEWIS, Oct. 11.—Some of the sapphires and rubies which formed part of the jewelry belonging to Mrs. Langtry, which was obtained by means of a forged order from the Salem street branch of the Union bank of London, on Aug. 21 last, have been discovered in the possession of a firm of merchants on Fleet street in this city, to whom they had been sold. The value of the stolen jewels have been estimated at from $100,000 to $200,000.

Fourteen Sailors Drowned.

COPENHAGEN, Oct. 11.—The British steamship Napier, belonging to North Shields, bound from Cronstadt to Rotterdam, has been in collision off the island of Anholt with the British steamer Livonia, of Leith. The latter vessel sank and fourteen of her crew were drowned in spite of the efforts of the Napier's crew, who, however, succeeded in rescuing ten men.

Another Dorrance Mine Victim.

WILKESBARRE, Pa., Oct. 11.—Robert Miller, aged 29 years, died at the City hospital here yesterday from the injuries he received in the explosion that occurred in the Dorrance mine on Monday afternoon last. This is the sixth death from that explosion. Miller was a civil engineer.

Episcopalians Disagree.

MINNEAPOLIS, Oct. 11.—It has developed that the house of bishops yesterday voted for Louisville as the next place of meeting. The two houses are thus at odds, the lower house having voted for Atlanta. A conference is "no necessary."

Forty Workmen Buried.

COLOGNE, Oct. 11.—A spinning factory at Becholt, forty-five miles from Munster, Westphalia, collapsed and buried forty workmen in the ruins. Of this number ten were killed outright and nine were seriously injured. The remaining workmen escaped with slight injuries.

AN INSURANCE ROW.

Serious Charges Against Mutual Reserve Fund Life Association Officers.

CHICAGO, Oct. 11.—Charges of a serious nature are made against the officers of the Mutual Reserve Fund Life Association of New York in a bill filed in the circuit court. The bill was prepared by Attorney William E. Nelson, who represents a number of the Chicago policy holders, and is brought for the purpose of enjoining the company from declaring their policies lapsed, owing to a dispute which has arisen and which the courts are called upon to settle.

The complainants show that they took out policies upon the recommendation of the company, through its agents, that the insurance business carried on by it was on the mutual plan, and that a very small reserve fund only was to be maintained by the company for emergencies. Also, the recommendations included, the court is informed, the statements that the assessment would not reach beyond a maximum amount.

The charge is made that the company is conducting the business of insurance in the state of Illinois in gross violation of the state laws, and by doing so are increasing the expense of insurance to the complainants, without any corresponding benefit. The complainants further charge the fact to be true that millions of dollars of insurance has been issued by the present management of the company without bringing in one dollar of benefit by way of cash payments.

Governor McIntyre Defended.

NEW YORK, Oct. 11.—William Hosea Biddle, vice president of the American Humane Association, has written to John G. Shortall, of Chicago, president of the society, asking him to withdraw from its minutes the resolution recently passed at a meeting in Minneapolis censuring Governor McIntyre, of Colorado, for "timidity and indifference" in not stopping the bull fights in his state. Governor McIntyre sent to the society a statement to prove that he exercised his official power so far as he could legally do to prevent the fights. The governor states that, as the sheriff refused to call upon him for assistance, he could only use the military arm of the state, under the circumstances, by a gross usurpation of power, which would render him liable to impeachment.

For a Colored Convention.

CHICAGO, Oct. 11.—A call has been issued by a committee of prominent negroes from many states in the Union for a national conference of colored men to meet at Detroit on Dec. 12 next. The call says in part: "Here we are today, thirty years from the emancipation, and millions of free men are practically disfranchised; the constitution of the United States set at defiance; colored American citizens not allowed freedom of locomotion; denied the freedom of decent transportation; municipal corporations granting license to private citizens to deny us accommodation in hotels, restaurants, barber shops, places of amusement, etc."

Tried to Sell Alleged Stolen Bonds.

NEW YORK, Oct. 11.—Charles Boussett, a young man who claims to be an English speculator, was arrested and locked up at police headquarters for trying to sell to T. E. Ward & Son fifty shares of Canadian Pacific stock which the firm was advised from London had been stolen from a Mrs. Winifred Gordon. Boussett showed a bill of sale for the stock from a Paris bank and claimed to have obtained it from a man named George Krahn. According to Boussett's story Krahn had been intimate with Mrs. Winifred Gordon, and with difficulty secured from her the bonds, which he had given her, with other valuables, to keep for him.

Welcoming Foreign Delegates.

SYRACUSE, N. Y., Oct. 11.—The second day's session of the national council of the Congregational churches of the United States took on an international aspect when delegates were welcomed from the unions of England, Wales and Canada. The Rev. George S. Barrett, the English representative, spoke of the reception tendered him and said that the English union sent its greetings. The American church had sprung from England, but the child had outgrown the parent. He continued: "You Americans have a knack of getting ahead of us, especially in athletics."

Probably Murdered by Tramps.

PITTSBURG, Oct. 11.—An unknown man was murdered and robbed at Bower Hill, near here, under circumstances which are yet a mystery. Passengers on an accommodation train discovered the body lying near the track. An examination showed that he had been shot through the head and his pockets rifled. The murder occurred where a gang of tramps had been camping. Subsequently the murdered man was identified as Julius Pastola, a coal miner.

Accidentally Shot His Fiancee.

WILKESBARRE, Pa., Oct. 11.—Schuyler Gross, of Shickshining, is in a frenzy of grief and remorse brought on by his own carelessness. While talking to Miss Sadie Meyer, to whom he is engaged to be married, and also carelessly examining a revolver, the weapon was discharged and the ball entered Miss Meyer's temple, thence plunging around to the left ear. The girl is unconscious and may die.

Masked Men Rob an Old Man.

PIQUA, O., Oct. 11.—Before daylight three masked men entered the house of Barney Peters, aged 82, and bound and gagged him, with Mrs. Mary Pistor, his housekeeper, aged 62, and at the point of a pistol made them open their safe. They secured money and jewelry valued at $150 and valuable papers. The robbers then went to a neighbor's and stole a horse and buggy and escaped.

The Hwa Sang Massacres.

FOO CHOW, China, Oct. 11.—The Ku-cheng commission finds that 130 Chinese took part in the massacre of missionaries at Hwa Sang. Fifty-nine persons have been put on trial. Forty five have been convicted. Thirty-two cases are awaiting the vicar's decision.

CAPTAIN ARMES FREE.

Judge Bradley Releases the Accused Officer from Custody.

GENERAL SCHOFFIELD CRITICIZED.

The Judge Declares That the General's Action Was Unwarranted, Illegal, Unjustified and Immoral—The Judge Advocates General Approves the Case.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 11.—Judge Bradley, of the district supreme court, ordered the discharge from custody of Captain George A. Armes, who was arrested on the order of Lieutenant General Schofield, just prior to the latter's departure from command of the army, for having written him an insulting letter. Judge Bradley scored the action of the general as tyrannical and capricious. In discharging Captain Armes Judge Bradley said:

"The arrest and taking away of Armes into custody, carrying him away from his home to barracks, and holding him in close arrest without any antecedent charge of crime preferred in any way against him, was and is unjust, unlawful, arbitrary, tyrannical and capricious on the part of General Schofield, in whatever capacity he acted, whether as lieutenant general or acting secretary of war.

Judge Bradley, in his opinion, expressly recognized the right to court martial a retired army officer, saying: "By Section 1,256 of the revised statutes of the United States he is 'subject to the rules and articles of war, and to trial by general court martial for any breach thereof,'" and he declared that arrest was not essential to a court martial.

Speaking of the letter written to General Schofield by Armes he cited the articles of war relative to complaints by officers and men and said: "This was a personal and a private communication to that officer. It makes grave charges of persecution, injustice, wrong and unjust and improper official action by General Schofield to the petitioner. If these charges were true, would their making be conduct unbecoming an officer and a gentleman, or conduct prejudicial to good order and military discipline? If the petitioner believed or thought that they were well founded would it be such conduct?"

"Is it possible that an officer in active service may lawfully seek redress from the commanding officer of his regiment, who he thinks has wronged him, and that a common soldier may lawfully complain of an officer if he thinks himself wronged by him, but a retired officer, out of active service, engaged in the pursuits of civil life, cannot complain to the general commanding the army of wrongs that he thinks or believes the general has inflicted upon him without being subjected to summary arrest and incarceration and ultimate trial by court martial? If so, then there is a rigid, unwritten discrimination against such an officer that should receive early attention and righting from our national legislature."

The judge advocate general's office of the war department has determined to take an appeal from the decision of Judge Bradley. This will carry the matter to the court of appeals of the District of Columbia.

The war department officials were naturally much disappointed and chagrined at the decision of Judge Bradley. Secretary Lamont refused to say what his purpose was, but it is believed, in view of the breadth of the decision, that no attempt will be made to try the captain by court martial pending the action of the appellate court upon the appeal noted. The case has outgrown its original importance, in view of the court's action, and now becomes of absorbing interest to all of the army, involving, as it is said to do, the whole question of the amenability of retired officers to discipline.

Missionary Murders Continue in China.

PAHS, Oct. 11.—The Catholic mission agency at Pehs has received letters reporting uprisings against the Europeans and Christians of the central provinces of China. The mission stations at Nan Ching have been destroyed and some of the converts killed and others wounded. The Russian consul in the absence of the French consul, was appealed to. He insisted that a telegram be sent to the local authorities ordering stringent measures for the restoration of order. Nevertheless, the disturbances continue.

Hatch to Succeed Castle.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 11.—Minister Castle expects to give place to Mr. Frank Hatch as the Hawaiian representative in Washington about Dec. 1. When Minister Thurston retired the Hawaiian government determined upon the appointment of Mr. Hatch minister of foreign affairs, but as he wished to remain during the session of the Hawaiian legislature Mr. Castle consented to come until December, with the understanding that he would be relieved then, to attend to his private business interests in Hawaii.

AFTER THE FIGHTERS AGAIN.

Governor Clarke Says the Fight May Now be Prevented in Arkansas.

HOT SPRINGS, Ark., Oct. 11.—Both Corbett and Fitzsimmons will do the remainder of their training in this city. Brady and Julian have settled the matter of a referee. Brady agreeing to permit Fitzsimmons to select good reputable men, and from them Brady will select the referee. Brady, who is at San Antonio, said today that the fight would certainly take place in Hot Springs on Oct. 31, even if they had to go into the woods to settle it, with only five or six men as witnesses. He has assurance, however, that the public exhibition will not be interfered with.

After having opened court yesterday Judge Duffie asked for the sheriff. Sheriff Houghton answered the summons and Judge Duffie said to him that he had been informed and believed that an attempt would be made to bring the Corbett-Fitzsimmons fight off in Hot Springs, and that he wished to call his attention to the fact that in doing so the principals would be breaking the laws of the state and outraging the dignity of the state of Arkansas. He would, in conjunction with Judge Teague, the prosecuting attorney, inform the sheriff at what stage it is his duty to interfere.

LITTLE ROCK, Oct. 11.—When shown the dispatch from Hot Springs about the action of Judge Duffie, in connection with the Corbett-Fitzsimmons fight, Governor Clarke said that he expected as much of Judge Duffie, prosecuting attorney Teague and Sheriff Houghton. Governor Clarke was emphatic in saying that since Judge Duffie has taken the initiative in the matter it would be a very easy matter to stop the fight. The chief executive of the state could now intervene and preclude the possibility of the affair being pulled off in the city of Hot Springs.

Ten Acres of Buildings Destroyed by Fire.

CHATHAM, N. B., Oct. 11.—The most serious conflagration that has ever visited this town broke out yesterday afternoon. It is supposed, in an ash heap on Mulhead street. A high wind prevailed, and the fire got such headway before the engines got to work that it was impossible to check the flames until sixty buildings were destroyed, extending a loss of more than $100,000. About ten acres were burned over. Most of the buildings destroyed were small dwellings, owned by poor people, and were not insured. About fifty people are homeless.

Nashville's Municipal Election.

NASHVILLE, Tenn., Oct. 11.—At this hour, with four weeks out of twenty to hear from McCarthy, the A. P. A. candidate for mayor, is about 250 votes ahead of Child, Democrat, and the A. P. A. candidates for councilmen also lead by about the same vote. The wards to hear from will hardly have Democratic majorities sufficient to overcome these figures. The total vote is about 14,000, and the proposition to subscribe $100,000 to the Tennessee exposition by the city is ratified.

Flaherty Secures a Stay.

GENESE, N. Y., Oct. 11.—Hon. George Raines, counsel for Rev. Charles Flaherty, and District Attorney Carter appeared before Judge Bradley in Rochester in regard to the appeal in the case of Flaherty, who was sentenced to Auburn for seven years on Wednesday. Judge Bradley granted a certificate of reasonable doubt, and a stay of sixty days was allowed for a notice of appeal for a new trial. Bail to the amount of $10,000 was secured and Flaherty was released from jail.

Sympathy for Debs.

PROBIA, Ill., Oct. 11.—At the meeting of the State Federation of Labor a resolution was adopted declaring that E. V. Debs was unjustly condemned to imprisonment, being sent there without trial by jury, extending sympathy to him so far as the methods employed by Judge Wood caused his incarceration. "And we express the hope that when Mr. Debs secures his liberty he will give his splendid efforts in upholding the trades union movement of America."

Central Pennsylvania Miners.

PHILIPSBURG, Pa., Oct. 11.—A call for a convention of miners to meet at Clearfield on the 15th has been issued by Chairman Wilson. The convention is called for the purpose of taking final action on whatever responses the operators have made to the demand for an advance. On account of the discharge of a number of miners who attended the convention at Philipsburg on the 2d inst, the miners at several mines have suspended work.

An Exile from Korea.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 11.—Prince Yanghio Pak, who was formerly prime minister of Korea, and is now an exile from that country on a charge of conspiracy, is in Washington. He called upon Acting Secretary McAdoo at the navy department yesterday and presented letters of introduction from mutual friends. The prince expects to remain some time in Washington.

Tramps as Highwaymen.

LEWISBURG, Pa., Oct. 11.—Joseph Culp, of Milton, was assaulted and robbed by three tramps on the outskirts of the town last night. He surrendered his watch and some money at the point of a revolver, and was then relieved of his hat, coat and vest. The tramps boarded a passing freight train and escaped.

NUGGETS OF NEWS.

THE UNREST IN TURKEY.

The Porte's Answer to the Powers Very Unsatisfactory.

BARRICADED ARMENIANS FREED.

They Leave the Church Where They Had Taken Refuge Under Escort of the Dragomans of the D'Arment Embassies—Fears of a Moslem Uprising.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Oct. 11.—Late yesterday it became known that the Turkish government had finally presented to the envoys of the six powers a reply to their collective note on the subject of the recent disturbances here. This reply, however, is not satisfactory to the ambassadors.

The Porte, in the answer, enumerated the measures taken to preserve order, and declared that the Mussulmans were not the aggressors in the recent rioting, but that, on the contrary, the Armenians killed inoffensive Mussulmans.

The Turkish government added that so soon as the Armenian refugees left the churches in which they sought refuge the normal aspect of the city will be restored. It denies ordering that no food be supplied to the refugees in the churches, and urges the ambassadors to assist in the work of restoring order, claiming that the Armenian agitators are intriguing to cause fresh disturbances.

The note concludes with the assertion that the government is about to open an inquiry into the recent rioting, with the view of discovering the guilty parties. Soon after the reception of the note the Armenian refugees were persuaded to return to their homes. They evacuated the churches in the presence of the dragomans of the embassies of the different foreign powers who were present on behalf of their embassies to ensure the safety of the refugees, and to report on their return to their homes to the ambassadors.

The situation is far from reassuring. While the Armenians and some sections of the Christian population show less alarm, the Moslem element is in a state of effervescence, which is causing the greatest anxiety at the palace. Revolutionary placards were posted yesterday at the mosques and other public places, clamoring for a constitution and for a meeting of national assemblies.

Though great exasperation is felt by the Moslem classes against the Armenians, the young Turkish party is adroitly profiting by the general confusion by exciting animus against the sultan, who it declares to be primarily responsible for the present state of affairs. The principal fear at the palace arises, not from the Armenians, but from the revolutionary spirit displayed by the Moslems. This fear will almost certainly bring about Armenian reforms, which there is every reason to hope will be embodied as published before the end of the week.

The sultan continues to be greatly disturbed by the presence of the British fleet off the island of Lemnos, and has sent again to the ambassador of Great Britain, Sir Philip Currie, to ask for the withdrawal of the British warship from the entrance of the Dardanelles. Sir Philip, it is understood, persists in refusing to recommend the withdrawal of the squadron.

Killed During a Celebration.

KEY WEST, Fla., Oct. 11.—Yesterday being the anniversary of the execution of seven students at Havana, it was celebrated in a fitting manner by ceremonies which began with the raising of the Cuban flag underneath the American flag at the city hall and court house amid cheers, music and the booming of cannon. Residences and business houses were gallily decorated, most of the latter being closed for the day. A long procession paraded the streets and then went to the cemetery, where the monument in memory of the Cuban leaders who perished for the cause was decorated. John Buel Frazier, a negro, was accidentally killed by the explosion of a cannon during the celebration, the top of his head being blown off.

Damages for Injured Feelings.

NASHUA, N. H., Oct. 11.—In the supreme court Charles F. Wright, of Amherst, was awarded a verdict of $51 against W. W. Goodwin, also of Amherst, for injury to his feelings as the result of having been rotten egged twice in July. The jury was out nineteen hours.

Sentenced to Death for the Third Time.

French Control Welcomed.

LONDON, Oct. 11.—Mr. Frederick Turner, a merchant of Antananarivo, has just arrived here, and his views have been sought upon the situation in Madagascar. He says that foreigners in Madagascar will welcome a sound French government, provided they be accorded equal rights under it with Frenchmen.

Remarkable Gunning Accident.

NEW HAVEN, Oct. 11.—While Dominick Braun and Robert Corillo were gunning in East Haven, Braun attempted to pull his gun through a fence, when one barrel went off, wounding him dangerously. His companion then tried to extricate the gun and the other barrel exploded, killing him instantly. Braun died last night.

Five Years and $500 Fine.

ALBANY, Pa., Oct. 11.—Vito Cortese was yesterday sentenced to five years in the Eastern penitentiary and fined $500 for shooting another Italian, who was acting the part of a peacemaker in a quarrel at the city water works on July 6 last.

Waite Predicts Success for Coxey.

OTTUMWA, Ia., Oct. 11.—Ex-Governor Waite of Colorado, who is here, says he has just returned from Ohio, and it is a sure thing that Coxey will defeat Campbell and Bushnell for governor.

"Aye! There's the rub!"

And that ought to be enough in itself to seal the doom of bar soap. This rubbing with soap may get clothes clean, if you work hard enough, but can't you see how it wears them out?

Follow the directions that come on every package of Pearline, and you'll find that you not only do away with the hard and ruinous work of rubbing—but that you save time, and actually get better results. At every point Pearline is better than soap. But the mere fact that Pearline saves the rubbing—that ought to settle it. BEWARE Peddlers will tell you "this is a good soap" or "the same as Pearline." IT'S FALSE—Pearline is never peddled. If your grocer sends you an imitation, be honest—send it back.

HOTEL DEADBEATS.

SHARP RASCALS WHO ARE TOO MUCH FOR THE SHREWDEST CLERKS.

Some of the Tricks by Which They Obtain Accommodations Without Paying and Also Borrow Money—Empty Trunks and Begus Packages.

Despite every precaution taken by shrewd hotel clerks a large number of persons are constantly engaged in securing board and lodging by fraud.

It is usually supposed that when a guest arrives at a hotel without baggage he cannot secure accommodations unless he pays in advance, but the tricky "deadbeat" not only will live in the hotel free for a week, but in many cases will secure a loan from the unsuspecting gentleman behind the desk.

The "deadbeat" constantly evolves new tricks to "do up" the hotel man, and it was not many days ago that a well known hotel was defrauded in a very skillful manner of a week's board and some of the cash in the till. The "deadbeat" walked into the hotel lobby and in a confident manner placed his name on the register as hailing from Chicago. He was neatly dressed and carried a small grip. He informed the clerk that he was a traveling man on his first trip to the coast.

Traveling men are good customers, so the new arrival was assigned to a good room. He handed two baggage checks to the clerk and requested that his trunks be sent for from the depot. In an hour or two he inquired why his baggage had not been sent up to his room. The porter was sent for and explained that the transfer company had not been able to find it. Inquiries were made by telephone, but the railroad people could give no information of the missing baggage.

"Well, I am in a nice fix," said the new guest to the hotel clerk, "for all my clothes are in my trunks, and I suppose the things have gone astray."

The clerk was very sympathetic, for a traveling man without his clothes is indeed to be pitied. The fellow managed to borrow $20 to buy some shirts, collars, ties, etc., and went out of the hotel vowing vengeance against the railroad company. He even had the hotel clerk pay for a telegram to Chicago inquiring at the depot there as to where the trunks bearing certain numbered checks had been sent to. The reply came back that they would look the matter up, and pending the information the new guest had a royal good time at the hotel. In a few days he disappeared, and it then dawned upon the hotel men that they had been neatly swindled by the means of two baggage checks which evidently had been stolen at some time in Chicago or elsewhere.

Another favorite trick to defraud a hotel is done by means of a confederate. One man will go to a first class house and secure a good room. About the second day he will be in the office, and while there the hotel clerk will receive a telephone message purporting to come from a well known store asking if Mr. So-and-so desires the goods he ordered sent up to the hotel. The clerk will naturally ask the guest the question, and he will reply that he desires the goods sent up. When the package arrives, there is always $10 to $25 to be paid. The hotel man is requested by the guest to "settle the amount and charge it up in my bill." It does not pay to offend a guest whose appearance indicates wealth, so the money is handed out in payment. The guest now disappears, and his trunk is found to be a cheap one and generally full of paper, while the package which has been paid for by the hotel people is also worthless.

Bogus telegrams and letterheads are frequently used by "deadbeats" in order to secure a little ready cash until "my money arrives," and very often the scheme works all right, for a hotel clerk is always afraid of offending a guest in these matters, for should he mistrust an honest man he will injure the hotel's reputation. While most hotels make it a rule not to cash drafts or checks or loan money, still very often the "deadbeat" will make them break it.

A scheme which has recently been worked all over the country was for the "deadbeat" to send by express a package to a hotel in another city. It would be heavily sealed and marked, "Value $200," and the hotel man, thinking that it contained jewelry intended for a guest soon to arrive, would put it in the safe. In a few days the "deadbeat" would turn up at the hotel, register and inquire if a package had arrived for him. He would be told that it was in the safe, and he would tell them it contained watches and valuables. The same night a man of $20 would be asked for, and the hotel man, remembering the valuable package in the safe, would in nine cases out of ten hand out the coin. The guest would disappear, and when the package was opened it was found to be of no value.

As all accounts in hotels are rendered weekly it is impossible for dishonest persons to obtain free living for longer than a week, for they will be requested to pay or vacate.

A man and his wife, by placing a supposed jewel case in a hotel safe, managed, some time ago, to secure over six weeks' living in a well known hotel in this city. The landlord, who had seen the woman wearing a quantity of jewels, naturally supposed they were in the jewel case in his safe. When the guests disappeared and the package was opened, it was found to be a trunk strap, carefully coiled up and tied with string.—San Francisco Chronicle.

Bismarck on Marriage.

A Vienna paper publishes a collection of aphorisms on love, women and marriage which have found utterance in the sittings of the German parliament. The following dictum is attributed to Bismarck, "It is an immense advantage to the career of any man if he can embark on the voyage of life without a female crew."

MISS POWER WAS A WINNER.

She Ran Her Father's Political Canvass, but Does Not Wish to Vote.

The new woman has many phases, and the scope of her activities is broad and constantly widening. In Mississippi a bright young woman has demonstrated marked ability and tact as a political manager, successfully conducting a spirited campaign. She is Miss Kate Power, and in politics at least has shown that her name is not a misnomer.

Miss KATE M. POWER. Miss Power is the daughter of Colonel J. L. Power of Jackson, Miss., the veteran editor of The Clarion, which for many years has been the official paper of the state of Mississippi. Colonel Power was ambitious to become secretary of state. There were two other candidates in the field, and a hot campaign lay between him and the goal of his ambition.

Early in the campaign Colonel Power was taken seriously ill. He managed to direct his canvass for a few days from his bedside, but steadily grew worse, so it was impossible for him to do anything toward securing the nomination. His prospect of getting the office seemed hopeless. His family feared that in his weakened condition if he were defeated his life would pay the penalty. It was then that his brave daughter came to the front and took charge of his waning canvass and heroically carried it to a successful termination. She had lived in the air of politics for years, as Jackson is a city of politicians, and had been for a time on the staff of The Clarion. She began by writing personal letters to all of Colonel Power's and her own friends, announcing his illness and that she was in charge of his canvass. Then followed addresses to the men of Mississippi, published in many of the papers of the state, and finally she made a personal canvass among the voters in nearly all the counties, showing the tact and shrewdness of a veteran campaigner. She directed the course of her father's delegates in the convention and won the campaign. The crowning marvel is that Miss Power is a strong antisuffragist.

Miss Power is a typical daughter of the south. She is rather tall, with black hair and large, lustrous chestnut brown eyes, shadowed by long dark lashes, and is an accomplished and attractive young woman. She is the editor of a "review," the only one in the gulf states published by a woman.

VERSATILE MAX NORDAU.

Successful Physician, Novelist, Dramatist, Journalist, Lecturer and Philosopher.

Max Simon Nordau, whose "Degeneration" provoked no end of criticism and comment and has given him a worldwide notoriety, insists that his literary genius should not be judged by that work alone. He declares that he is no specialist and refuses to be classified as a philosophical writer solely, but claims recognition in a wide field of letters.

Whatever may be thought of the sentiments and theories expressed in his "Degeneration," "Soul Analysis" and "Conventional Lies," the versatility of his genius must be recognized. He is a successful physician in active practice, and besides his philosophical writings he has produced much in the line of fiction and the drama and has written much on contemporaneous topics in the newspapers. He is at once a physician, lecturer, journalist, novelist, dramatist and photographer, however faulty may be his philosophy.

Max Nordau is 46 years of age, and though his hair and beard are white he does not look old. He is full bodied and vital, hale and hearty, and is an indefatigable worker, possessing quite remarkable power of concentration.

He was born in Pesth, Hungary, his father being a Prussian and his mother from Riga, in the Baltic provinces. His father was a man of considerable ability, but was very poor. He originally had been a Jewish rabbi and was engaged in Pesth as a tutor, receiving small compensation from his father. He was a precocious child and could read at the age of 4. At 14 various poems, essays and tales of his were published, and at 16 he was the principal collaborator on a paper called Der Zarenknecht. At 18 he entered the University of Pesth as a student of medicine, and during his course wrote for various papers, early attaining some prominence as an art, literary and dramatic critic and writer on social and medical topics. He took his degree as doctor of medicine at the University of Pesth in 1872, and in 1882 received a degree from the University of Paris. He has traveled widely, labored industriously, written voluminously, and, whether the world says good or bad things of him, is one of the most talked of men on two continents.

KNOWLEDGE
Brings comfort and improvement and to personal enjoyment when rightly used. The many, who live better than others and enjoy life more, with less expenditure, by more promptly applying the world's best products to the needs of physical being, will attest the value to health of the pure liquid laxative principles embraced in the remedy, Syrup of Figs.

Its excellence is due to its presenting in the form most acceptable and pleasant to the taste, the refreshing and truly beneficial properties of a perfect laxative; effectually cleansing the system, dispelling colds, headaches and fevers and permanently curing constipation. It has given satisfaction to millions and met with the approval of the medical profession, because it acts on the Kidneys, Liver and Bowels without weakening them and it is perfectly free from any objectionable substance.

Syrup of Figs is for sale by all druggists in 50 cent bottles, but it is manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co. only, whose name is printed on every package, also the name, Syrup of Figs, and being well informed, you will not accept any substitute if offered.

GET WELL, ENJOY LIFE!
Don't Suffer with Rheumatism--Take Paine's Celery Compound.

The common sense of the people has long refused to believe that rheumatism and neuralgia were diseases hopeless of cure.

Prof. Edward E. Phelps, M. D., LL. D., of Dartmouth college, has confirmed their belief. There is an absolute specific for both of these diseases in Paine's celery compound. Thousands of men and women are every year entirely freed from these two torturing disorders by Paine's celery compound.

Neuralgia-pain affects first one part of the body and then another. Nature's restorer, sleep, is sought in vain, and life's ordinary duties become burden too heavy to be borne. In this condition of sleeplessness Nature's call for rest must be regarded. If unheeded, serious consequences are likely to ensue. The nerves must be built up by a proper nerve food. There is nothing equal to Paine's celery compound.

The body is not a machine which simply wears out after a certain number of years, but a vital organism having the power of reviving itself—capable of being hard worked, but demanding frequent times of recuperation in sleep.

To quickly furnish a fresh and abundant supply of nutriment for every tissue of the body is the purpose for which Paine's celery compound was first prepared. This rapid production of fresh nervous energy and pure blood was the one endeavor of Prof. Edward E. Phelps' long study of the cause of nervous exhaustion.

The result of his life work was Paine's celery compound, that remarkable remedy that permanently speedsily cures disease. It is the greatest nerve regulator and blood purifier of this present century.

For men and women out of health, Paine's celery compound should be tried without fail. It has meant health in place of sickness in thousands of cases that seemed hopeless.

The fact that this is the season when rheumatism most painfully shows itself, makes the following communication from Mr. J. M. Tobias of South Omaha, Neb., of special interest. Mr. Tobias writes: "I suffered for years with rheumatism in the joints of my hands and arms, so that I could perform my work only with the greatest difficulty. I used all kinds of medicines without result. Finally I secured a bottle of Paine's celery compound, and it benefited me at once. Paine's celery compound certainly cures rheumatism!"

UP THE MIDLAND.

Senatorial Candidates in the Twenty-sixth District—Abundant Crops—Little Butter in the Farmers' Hands—Good Outlook for Wood Choppers.

Correspondence ARJOS and MERCURY.
—Our lumbermen are feeling blue over the want of a freshet. Should it not rain soon it must make cold and dangerous rafting.

—Delaware county, the home of both the senatorial candidates for the 26th district, while strongly Republican, will give the Democratic candidate, Mr. Davis, a good vote, as he is well and favorably known throughout the county. As the district is at the lowest calculation 2,500 Republican, it can hardly be expected that he will pull through. Give Mr. Davis an equal chance, and he would beat Mr. Ballantine so badly, that he would never hanker after office again.

—In speaking of the senatorial nominations of that district, the Norwich Sun of Oct. 5th, refers to the Republican candidate as Hon. James Ballantine, and to the Democratic candidate as plain Henry Davis. If my friend Campbell was intimately acquainted with both of these men, he would write down Mr. Davis, as being the more honorable of the two. That's so Read; I am willing to forgive you this time under the impression that you are not acquainted with the men.

—With the exception of hay and pasture the crops up this way are all fully up to the average. The buckwheat crop in localities where it was not injured by the grasshoppers is as good as it has been in the past ten years. The apple crop is much better than even the most sanguine looked for. Potatoes are superabundant and the oldest person does not remember when there was another such a crop. They are selling at twenty-five cents a bushel with the chances of going lower were it not for the fact that many farmers are feeding them to their stock to get rid of them.

—There is probably less butter held at present by the farmers of Delaware county than for years past, for the very good reason that the drought and grasshoppers cut off the season's make it least one-third. The farmers of that section are in hard luck, and many of them will find it difficult to get along. It has not gone well with farmers for the past three years but the present shortage in the grass crop in that county both for hay and pasture has never been equaled, and let us hope may never be repeated.

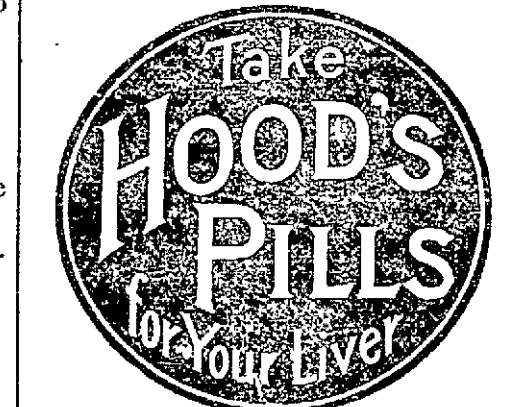

—There will be a great amount of wood to be cut this fall and the coming winter at our numerous acid factories. The acid business is not booming by any means but the supply of wood has been allowed to become short during the late financial depression. As it does not pay to handle or burn green wood an effort will be made to cut more than a year's supply. Prices paid for cutting are from eighty to ninety cents a cord, and as a good chopper can cut and pile two cords a day with all ease, it will be seen that good wages can be earned at wood cutting.

* After Summer's Heat

the entire system has more or less of a struggle to fortify itself for the cold of the coming winter. In cases where the body has become over-exhausted by the prostrating effects of the past warm weather, an inability to cope with the change is experienced. Loss of appetite, weight, sleep, or strength are dangerous symptoms that foretell coming troubles.

REGISTRATION.

Registration days are not a week apart this year.There are four days for registration, in pairs Friday and Saturday, Oct. 11 and the first days.

Personal registration is obligatory.

This is the first day of registration.
Every Democrat should see that his name is put on the list at once. Unless you are registered you cannot vote against 3 1/2 tax rates and for Democratic principles.Republican papers are now telling Orange county Democrats that they ought to vote for Col. Dickey for Justice of the Supreme Court, and are explaining how much money will be saved Orange county litigants by having another Supreme Court Judge in Newburgh. This is stuff and nonsense, for we are authorized to state that in the event of the election of the Democratic candidates for the Supreme bench arrangements will be made for continuing special terms in Orange county. The duty of Democrats is to support the regularly nominated candidates of their party when, as in the case of the candidates for Justices of the Supreme Court, they are men whose ability, fitness and integrity are beyond cavil.Newspapers in different parts of the State are "jumping on" school trustees who obey the letter but not the spirit of the law requiring the display of the American flag on school buildings. The law does not specify the size of the flag, and every here and there thirty trustees are flying three cent flags from the peaks of their school houses. The school house flag law is a ridiculous one.
Its enactment was secured on the specious plea that the daily sight of "Old Glory" would fill the youthful soul with patriotic ardor. A moment's reflection will show that this is all buncombe for love of country that is born of waving banners is the shadow and not the substance and profiteth nothing. A farcical compliance with the letter of this ridiculous law is, however, to be deplored, for a three penny flag pinned to a school house peak begets not only contempt for the stars and stripes but also contempt for laws that can be so easily evaded.

two truants, yesterday. He was hot upon the trail of the young desperwhich an alleged improvement had been made and where, in making a sidewalk, the earth had been dug away leaving a shallow opening under an overhanging bank.The boys stretched themselves out in the narrow space under the bank and, like "Brer Rabbit," laid low.

The bogie man passed so close to the stowaways that had they reached out their hands they could have touched his feet, but he passed on all unconscious of their presence, and when last seen was far up the street, looking as if uncertain whether the truants had sunk into the earth, flown away or suddenly become invisible.When fortune peeps had shown them that the coast was clear the truants emerged from their lair, shook their fists at the bogie man's back and ran off to enjoy the parade.

Personal Registration is obligatory.

AFTER THE PARADE.

McQuoids' Festival and Dance—Ontario and Waalkills Make Merry in Their Truck House.

For several years past McQuoid Engine Company has concluded the festivities of Firemen's Parade Day, by holding a festival and dance. In conformity with this custom, the members of the company with their wives, sisters and sweethearts, and many friends from the other companies of the department gathered in the Assembly Rooms, last night, where a merry evening was spent. Barne's orchestra furnished the music for dancing. Refreshments were served by the ladies.

The members of Ontario Hose Company held a private hop in their truck house, last evening. Halstead's orchestra furnished the music for dancing. A most enjoyable evening was spent.

Waalkill Engine Company also held a hop in its truck house after the parade and supper. The youngest company in the department can give some of its older brethren points in conducting affairs of this kind. Every one present had a thoroughly good time.

FELL AND BROKE HIS HIP.

A Mountain Dale Man Meets With a Painful Accident in This City.

Mr. Thomas Riley, a well known resident of Mountain Dale, Sullivan county, arrived in this city, last evening, on Erie train 8, accompanied by his daughter and son-in-law, Mr. James Carden. The car in which he rode stopped above the tower at James street and in alighting on the rough stone ballast at that point Mr. Riley fell and sustained a fracture of his hip. He was carried to Wm. Roe's hotel, where Dr. Mills reduced the fracture. He was taken on a cot, this morning, via O. and W. train 1, to his home at Mountain Dale.

Mr. Riley is eighty-four years of age, and at his time of life such an injury is indeed serious.
Mr. Carden asserts that suit will be brought against the Erie for heavy damages.

THE 24TH COMPANY'S BAND

Many Words of Praise for Its Fine Music in Yesterday's Parade.

Many words of praise were heard all along the line of march, yesterday, for the excellent music rendered by the 24th Separate Company Band. The organization has made wonderful progress during the short time the members have been playing together, and proved a veritable surprise to many of our citizens who have not heard its music recently.

The band was never in better condition than to-day. There are no internal dissensions and Mr. Arthur Parkins is a painstaking leader who has the confidence of his fellow musicians. There is no reason why Middletown should not have the best band in the county. Excelsior Hook and Ladder Company is to be commended for taking the band to Yonkers, thus lending both moral and financial encouragement to the organization.

EXCELSIORS' TRIP TO YONKERS

Arrangements Completed—By Special Train to Cornwall and by Boat Down the River.

The arrangements for Excelsior Hook and Ladder Company's trip to Yonkers, on Thursday next, are about completed. The company will leave this city, at 6:30 o'clock, in the morning, via special train on the O. & W. to Cornwall, going from there by boat to Yonkers. Returning they will leave Yonkers about 9 o'clock in the evening.

The 24th Separate Company Band will accompany Excelsiors on the trip.

—Don't fail to have your name placed on the registry list, to night or to-morrow. Delays are dangerous.

Dwelling House Burned.

The house on the road between Parkville and Livingston Manor, occupied by James Green, was destroyed by fire, Wednesday morning. The high wind caused the fire to burn so fiercely that most of the furniture burned with the house.

Associate Members of the Ladies' Schubert Club.

Any person can become an associate member of the Ladies' Schubert Club by the payment of $2 annual dues. Associate members are entitled to one season ticket to the concerts and the privilege of attending all rehearsals.

Addition to the Russell House Completed.

Mr. O. J. Kidd, of Montgomery, who has been engaged for some time in building an addition to the dining room of the Russell House, has completed his work and returned home, to-day. It is needless to say that his work was well done.

AN EVENING WITH SHAKESPEARE.

Mrs. Anne Randall Diehl's Reading Under the Auspices of the "The Tourists."

By invitation of "The Tourists," the two Art Clubs, the Travelers' Club and a few other friends spent a most delightful "Evening with Shakespeare," at Mrs. F. O. Tompkins', last night.

Mrs. Anne Randall Diehl, a reader of established reputation, had been engaged by "The Tourists" for Tuesday evening, but a severe cold made it necessary for her to ask for the postponement of the entertainment until last night. Mrs. Diehl had not entirely recovered from her indisposition and a cough marred to some extent the otherwise fine rendering of some of her selections.

Mrs. Diehl read parts of Romeo and Juliet, Macbeth and As You Like It. Her selections were well made and her rendering of them showed careful and intelligent study and nice appreciation of every shade of meaning. In some of the selections she showed great dramatic power and the versatility of her talent was evidenced by the fact that her hearers were divided in opinion as to whether she was at her best as Juliet or as Lady Macbeth.

Mrs. Diehl concluded with a very clever reading of a bit of dialect, S. W. Foss's "When Shakespeare Slung Himself."

During the intermissions, Miss Brett, of Fishkill, a niece of Mrs. Tompkins, and Miss Julia Wickham favored the audience with songs.

Refreshments were served by "The Tourists." The evening was most pleasant and profitable and will long be a delightful memory with all who were fortunate enough to be present.

STARVING CANAL BOATMEN.

Their Vessels Tied on Dry Land and They are Penalized.

Starvation is staring the Delaware and Hudson canal boatmen in the face. Their 475 boats are tied up all along the line on dry land. Many are empty, but more are filled with coal. For seven weeks not a boat has moved.

The men have quartered their horses and mules with farmers, but they have no money to pay for their keep. The boatmen usually make ten trips every season and they receive $80 a trip. This season they have made only four trips.

The Delaware and Hudson Canal Company sells the boats for $2,000, and keeps $15 out of each trip until the boats are paid for. The men are so poor now that a committee waited upon the company and obtained $50 each to help support them this winter. The amount will be charged against the boats.

A $5,000 Burglary in Kingston.

Thieves scaled a water pipe on the residence of S. D. Coykendall in Kingston, last evening, while the family was at dinner, and entering the rooms of Mrs. and Miss Coykendall stole jewelry worth $5,000 and $25 in cash. The theft was evidently the work of some one familiar with the house and the family's habits, and is believed to have been committed by some one now or formerly employed by the family.

Pitched So Hard He Broke His Arm.

While pitching in a game of ball at Rockland, Saturday, W. E. Annin, of that village, so wrenched his arm in delivering a ball that the bone in the upper arm was obliquely fractured.

The O. and W. Fall Excursion

Tickets for the annual fall excursion of the New York, Ontario and Western Railway to New York city will be sold at one fare for the round trip. Reclining chair cars, seats free, in addition to elegant day coaches, will be run.

A Midnight "Scrap."

A lively "scrap," which is said to have lasted nearly half an hour, occurred in King street, about midnight last night. The aggressor was spotted for a fight and it is said by those who witnessed the "sport" that the man whom he had been bantering gave him all the fight he wanted. No arrests were made.

Real Estate Sales.

—The property of Vernon P. Atwell, corner of East Main street and Prospect avenue, consisting of a house and five lots, has been sold, through the agency of Combs & Wilbur, to Mr. Abraham P. Howell. Price private.

Gone Hunting.

Mr. E. T. Skidmore, Jr., started, this morning, on a hunting expedition in the Ramapo mountains.

The Best Family Cathartic.

Food's general home medicine Hood's Pills are unequalled. They were prepared for family use and they have been found entirely satisfactory wherever they have been used. Their sale has gradually extended until to-day the demand for them leads the trade to look upon Hood's Pills as "the coming pill." They relieve and cure so many troubles that they are really a whole medicine chest. They are mild and yet efficient.

Page's Ointment Salve is warranted to cure eczema, salt rheum, and all skin diseases without any inward medicine. Do not fail to try it.

INCIDENTS AND HAPPENINGS IN GOSHEN.

Arranging for a Lecture Course—Goshen Vocal Society Concerts—saw the Firemen's Parade—In sore straits for Water.

From Our Regular Correspondent.

—Rev. Robert Bruce Clark is soliciting subscriptions for a popular lecture course for the winter. The price of tickets for the course, which will include three or four lectures, has been placed at $1. About three hundred subscribers will be required.

—The Goshen Vocal Society has fixed the dates for its concerts for the season of 1915-16 as follows: Friday, Oct. 26; Friday, Dec. 27; Friday, Feb. 14, 1896, and Friday, April 24. The concerts this season will be of lighter character than last year, and but little professional talent will be employed.

—Mrs. B. R. Champion has vacated her house on Church street, preparatory to removing to New York city for the winter.

—A good sized delegation from this village was present at the Middletown firemen's parade, yesterday.

—A temperance lecture will be given in the M. E. Church, to-morrow night.

—The Rider engine and the steam pump are being run day and night at the water works, and are adding to the water supply about 75,000 gallons daily. All water motors and houses containing bath rooms and closets were shut off to-day, however, because of necessary repairs about to be made.

—First day of registration. Get your name on the list before 9 o'clock, to night.

EXCELSIOR'S NEW TRUCK

To Be Shipped Monday—May Reach Here in Time for the Yonkers Parade.

Word has been received from the Seagraves Manufacturing Co., of Detroit, Mich., to the effect that Excelsior's new truck will be shipped Oct. 14th. If the truck is shipped by fast freight and is not side-tracked it should arrive in time for the Yonkers parade.

First Day of Registration.

The inspectors of election acting as Board of Registry met at the several polling places in the city, to-day. The registration was light, but it is expected that many more names will be added to the lists, this evening. Many voters had overlooked the fact that the registration days have been changed from last year and were of the opinion that to-morrow was to be the first day. Don't delay, but get your name on the list to-night.

Mr. Lea Gets the Receipts of Comstock's Minstrels at Port Jervis.

Mr. George Lee, accompanied by his attorney, J. F. Bradner, Esq., went to Port Jervis, this morning, and made a formal demand on Constable Phillips for the receipts of Comstock's minstrels, which the officer seized, last week, under a blanket attachment secured by a New York tailor named Cohen, whom Comstock owed for uniforms. The constable in order to avoid trouble turned the money, $32, over to Mr. Lee.

The Cake Walk.

Miss Hattie Broadhead, of Newburgh, and Mr. Nelson Johnson, of this city, were the winners at the cake walk at Nicholson's Hall, last night.

Coming Events at the Casino

—"Shore Acres" to-morrow evening.

—"Side Tracked" next Tuesday evening.

—"Newest Woman" next Wednesday evening.

—"Zero," a spectacular production, next Thursday evening.

What is

CASTORIA

Castoria is Dr. Samuel Pitcher's prescription for Infants and Children. It contains neither Opium, Morphine nor other Narcotic substance. It is a harmless substitute for Paregoric, Drops, Soothing Syrups, and Castor Oil. It is Pleasant. Its guarantee is thirty years' use by Millions of Mothers. Castoria destroys Worms and allays feverishness. Castoria prevents vomiting Sour Curd, cures Diarrhoea and Wind Colic. Castoria relieves teething troubles, cures constipation and flatulency. Castoria assimilates the food, regulates the stomach and bowels, giving healthy and natural sleep. Castoria is the Children's Panacea—the Mother's Friend.

Castoria.

"Castoria is an excellent medicine for children. Mothers have repeatedly told me of its good effect upon their children."

Dr. G. C. Osgood,
Lowell, Mass.

"Castoria is the best remedy for children of which I am acquainted. I hope the day is not far distant when mothers will consider the real interest of their children, and use Castoria instead of the various quack nostrums which are destroying their loved ones, by forcing opium, morphine, soothing syrup and other harmful agents down their throats, thereby sending them to premature graves."

Dr. J. F. ENCLOSURE,
Colway, Ark.

Castoria.

"Castoria is so well adapted to children that I recommend it as superior to any prescription known to me."

H. A. Archer, M. D.,
111 So. Oxford St., Brooklyn, N. Y.

"Our physicians in the children's department have spoken highly of their experience in their outside practice with Castoria, and although we only have among our medical supplies what is known as regular products, yet we are free to confess that the merits of Castoria has won us to look with favor upon it."

GETTING EVEN.

An Impressive Account of Two Evenings With the McSwats.

"A cigar that costs a quarter is always a good one, isn't it, Billiger?" asked Mrs. McSwat.
"Not always, Lobelia," replied Mr. McSwat. "Not always."
"If it costs a quarter and is put up in a glass case with a stopper at one end, it's generally a good one, isn't it?"
"Generally," he admitted, eying her with some suspicion. "Why?"
"Because I bought one for you this morning at a tobacconist's and paid 25 cents for it. If you would like to smoke it now, here it is."

Dinner was over, and they were sitting on the veranda. It had begun to grow dark.

With another sidelong glance at his wife Mr. McSwat took the glass incased cigar. Removing it from its case, he was about to light it, when he felt something soft projecting from one end.

"If you will increase my obligation to you, Lobelia," he said, "to the extent of providing me with a match, I will proceed to smoke this cigar, which," he added, smiling it critically, "seems to be a very fine one."

Lobelia went after the match, and Mr. McSwat lost no time in examining the gift. Grasping the soft projectile he had felt, he pulled it carefully out.

It was a rubber band, long and slender, that appeared to have been pulled into the cigar by means of a darning needle or some similar implement. It was long enough to reach from one end to the other.

He examined it as well as he could in the fading light and placed it in his pocket just as Mrs. McSwat returned with a handful of matches.

"Thank you, my dear," he said gravely, striking one of them and lighting the cigar.

For some moments he smoked in silence. Mrs. McSwat watching him with the corner of her eye, but appearing to be absorbed in contemplating the pale moon.

"Is it a good cigar, Billiger?" she presently asked.

"Splendid, Lobelia, splendid," he rejoined with great heartiness. "I don't think I ever [puff, puff] smoked a finer one."

"Has a good flavor, hasn't it?"
"Admirable, Lobelia, admirable. A woman's inability [puff] to buy a good cigar [puff, puff] is a standing joke, but you certainly [puff] have bought a good one. Paid a quarter for it, did you?"

"Yes."

"Well, it's worth it."

And he smoked on.

A week had vanished into the dim, silent past.

She sat on the veranda again in the gloaming.

"Lobelia," said Mr. McSwat, carelessly tossing a small package into her lap. "If you still retain your old appetite for chocolate creams—and I have reason to believe you do—I think you will like these. They are fresh from the confectioner's."

He lighted a cigar and smoked in silence, while Mrs. McSwat proceeded to minister to the gratification of her sweet tooth.

One of the chocolate bonbons did not seem to dissolve readily. It tasted unlike the others and had a flexible core.

She took it out and dissected it.

Its principal ingredient she found to be a long, slender rubber band, about which there appeared to linger a mild Cuban flavor.

She looked at Mr. McSwat. He was gazing contemplatively at the stars.

She silently threw the rest of the candy away.

And Billiger smoked on. — Chicago Tribune.

Discovered Too Late.

Old-time local stablemen do not tire of telling the incident that befell the liveryman who once ran a stable at the corner of Amherst and Elmback streets something over 25 years ago. The old stable was many years ago removed to the south end to give place to a more modern block.

One summer day a well-dressed and apparently well-to-do stranger entered the stable and said he wanted to hire a team for a drive through the country for eight or ten days. The stranger had his eye particularly on a handsome black mare of Canadian pedigree and a stylish carriage.

The stableman inquired which way his prospective customer was going, and the price agreed upon was $2 a day. But the stableman hesitated.

"I don't know you," he said. "You may be all right or you may not. I don't know where you're from or anything about you."

"Well, I'll pay you in advance. If that's what you want," said the stranger.

But the stableman was not worrying so much about the pay as he was the sure and safe return of the team.

"I'll tell you what I'll do," said the stranger. "I'll buy the team outright. What'll you take?"

"Five hundred dollars," said the stableman, "the whole rig, mare and all."

"Done," said the stranger. "Here's your money." And he pulled out a big roll of bills and counted out the $500, jumped into the team and drove off.

Ten days afterward the stranger came back, drove into the stable, threw the reins over the mare's back and inquired for the proprietor.

"Hurry up, too," said the stranger, "for I must be away."

When the proprietor appeared, the stranger said: "I'll sell the team, and I'd like to sell it back to you. What'll you give? I'm in a hurry, so hurry up."

"Give you what I took—$500," said the stableman and handed over the money, and the stranger, saying a hurried goodby, disappeared.

Five minutes afterward the livery stableman thumped his office desk, jumped six feet into the air and cut a piteous wailing. "Blacker black blank! By the great striped tumbler bug! I've let that man get away and didn't get paid for the use of the team!" — Manchester Union.

A Common Danger.

If you have ever had a cold which you permitted to "wear away" it may interest you to know it was a dangerous proceeding. Every cold and cough which is neglected paves the way for consumption, bronchitis, asthma or catarrh. Otto's Cure, the famous German throat and lung remedy, will cure any cough or cold and save you from consumption. Call on John J. Chambers and get a sample bottle free.

Some days nothing will "come out right," from the time you rise till you retire. Ten to one, the trouble is in yourself. Your blood is in bad condition, and every organ suffers in consequence. What you need is the cleansing, invigorating influence of Ayer's Sarsaparilla.

Rebecca Wilkinson, of Brownsvalley, Ind., says: "I have been in a distressed condition for three years from nervousness, weakness of the stomach, dyspepsia and indigestion until my health was gone. I had been doctoring constantly with Jellolite. I bought one bottle of South American Nerve, which did me more good than any $50 worth of doctoring I ever did in my life. I would advise every weakly person to use this valuable and lovely medicine; a few bottles of it have cured me completely. I consider it the grandest medicine in the world." Warranted the most wonderful stomach and nerve cure ever known. Sold by J. E. Mills, Middletown, N. Y.

How to be Handsome.

It is a mistake to suppose that the only way to be good looking is to be born so. Good health has more to do with good looks than anything else. Such diseases as constipation, dyspepsia, liver complaints, rheumatism, nervous disorders, &c., not only shorten life, but spoil tempers and "looks." Bacon's Celery King for the nerves cures these troubles. John J. Chambers sells it and will give a sample peck—free.

We recommend DeWitt's Colic & Cholera Cure because we believe it a safe and reliable remedy. Its good effects are shown at once in cases of Cholera Morbus and similar complaints. W. D. Olney.

Marvelous Results.

From a letter written by Rev. J. Gundersen, of Dimondale, Mich., we are permitted to make this extract: "I have no hesitation in recommending Dr. King's New Discovery, as the results were almost marvelous in the case of my wife. While I was pastor of the Baptist Church at Rives Junction she was taken down with pneumonia, succeeding laryngitis. Terrible paroxysms of coughing would last hours with little interruption, and it seemed as if she could not survive them. A friend recommended Dr. King's New Discovery; it was quick in its work and highly satisfactory in results." Trial bottles free at McMonagle and Rogers' Drug Store. Regular size 50c. and $1.00.
